TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Holyrood Palace. A magnificent representation of the great and historic edifice. The Palace stretches across the picture east and west, and is dominated by Arthur's Seat and Salisbury Crags. The dark turret from the west end of the nearest and north wing contains the private supper-room of Queen Mary—the room from which the Italian Rizzio was taken to his death.

Souvenir of your visit.
I do hope you are keeping well. We are living the simple life — we often do and enjoy it & keep warm as it is very cold here just now. Lots of love from Dick.
